JAM DANCE SESSIONS

As you are aware, we had to unfortunately cancel the JAM dance sessions before half term.

These have been rescheduled for Friday 10th March. Please ensure your child has their PE kit in school on this day.

FLUORIDE APPLICATIONS

Fluoride varnish applications for KS1 and EYFS children, due to take place before half term, will now take place on Wednesday 8th March. Only children who have previously returned their consent form will receive the treatment.

WORLD BOOK DAY!

On Thursday the whole school joined together to celebrate World Book Day. A wonderful day was had by all and we were so impressed by the children's effort with their costumes.

Well done to the following children who won prizes for their efforts:

Sarrinah, Tori, James, Arpita, Kelcie, Yaseen, Jessica, Annabel, Rihanna, Stran

SPARE CLOTHES

Once again, we have had more children arriving at school in wet clothes today! Please search for any unused pants, socks and tights at home and bring them into school. Alternatively if you would like to make a donation of new clothes, all sizes will be welcome!

PRAYER

Dear God, Thank you for our friends and family. Sorry for the unkind and selfish things we may have done in life. Please help the poor to survive. Amen.
