Democracy Education

Today, Willow and Oak Classes took part in workshops on democracy led by a representative from the Government Education Department. Alfie (Year 5) commented, "We learnt that laws have to be agreed by the House of Commons then the House of Lords. After that they are sent to the Queen who usually accepts them." The children held a mock debate with a vote. In Year 5 they voted to ban school uniform!

Crossteach Lesson in Oak Class

This week Chris taught Year 6 about the visit of the Magi. Micah said, "I learnt that Christians believe that Jesus is the Light of the World. Chris made our art really fun."

See Micah's work in progress opposite.

Visit to the Magi by Micah, Oak Class

Dear God,

Thank you for our games and competitions and for all the fun we can have. We are sorry that sometimes we are mean to each other when we want to win. Please help us not to argue and to accept that we will sometimes lose.

Amen

Prayer written by Brooke and Abi, Cedar Class
